By NEIL GILBRIDE
Associated Press Writer
WASHINGTON (AP) — Rail industry and union negotiators reached a wage settlement today for 48,000 shopcraft workers and Secretary of Labor George P. Shultz said "we will not be having any strike on the railroads."

The agreement was reached after 20 hours of nonstop bargaining.

Although it must be ratified by the members of four unions, chief union negotiator William W. Wimpisinger agreed the strike threat was ended.

"It won't be necessary to inconvenience the public, the shippers," Wimpisinger said. Details of the agreement were withheld pending union ratification votes, except for the fact the settlement will cover 1970 as well as retroactive 1969 pay hikes.

Stock Market Lowest Since January 4

NEW YORK (AP) — The Dow Jones industrial average sank Wednesday to its lowest closing level since Jan. 4, 1967, as the stock market retreated on a broad front.

The averages sagged 7.99 points to 793.36, its bottom since closing at 791.14 nearly three years ago. A year ago Wednesday the market barometer stood at its 1968 high of 985.21.

Analysts said that in addition to its persisting worries about Vietnam and tight money, the market was depressed by a forecast that corporate profits might decline up to 20 per cent next year.

The Associated Press 60-stock average dropped 3.4 to 272.9, its lowest close since Oct. 10, 1966. Of 1,606 issues traded on the New York Stock Exchange, 1,177 fell and 246 rose. Volume climbed to 11.3 million shares from 9.95 million on Tuesday.

Hunger Used by Poor as a Platform

WASHINGTON (AP) — Whatever it was intended to be the White House conference on hunger is being used by the poor as a platform to push the Nixon administration into war now against hunger and poverty.

Demands for declaration of a national hunger emergency, a guaranteed annual income of $5,500, and free food stamps immediately won shouted approval at a rump session Wednesday night attended by a third of the conference's 3,000 delegates.

That session and lobbying by poor, Mexican-American, and black caucuses played against a backdrop of seminars considering everything from food labeling to the nature of fatty acids. More than 500 delegates have turned in their $18.30 a day meal tickets to protest what they say is administration disinterest in free school breakfast and lunch programs which would cost less than a dollar a day per student. A group of priests has started a fast.

A conference panel is recommending a guaranteed income — no figure is suggested — and a conference staff member says the demands of the rump session will be noted in the final report to President Nixon.

The Rev. Ralph Abernathy of the Southern Christian Leadership Conference urged an all-out federal effort to abolish hunger by Thanksgiving 1970. He knows hunger, Abernathy said, adding: "I live with people who cannot afford cottage cheese to reduce."

The conference is developing

Louisville Names Youths Outstanding

Phil Foster, Brent Haltom, and Janice Kitchens have been selected as Louisville High School's representatives in the "Outstanding Teenagers of America for 1970" Awards sponsored by The Outstanding Americans Foundation.

The students, nominated for this honor by their school, will compete for state and national awards in the Outstanding Teenagers of America program.

The Outstanding Americans Foundation, a nonprofit foundation dedicated to honoring, inspiring, and encouraging young people to take full advantage of the opportunities in America, sponsors this awards program annually.

The recipients of this honor were selected on the basis of ability and achievement. They will compete with other winners in their state for the Governor's Trophy awarded annually to the most outstanding teenager of each state. Each of the fifty state winners will be eligible for one of the Two National Outstanding Teenagers of America awards and college scholarships, made available by the Outstanding Americans Foundation.

Mr. John Putnam, President of the Foundation, has said it is the goal of his awards program "to recognize and encourage the ability and achievements of today's young people. They are America's leaders of tomorrow."

Janice is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Lile Kitchens, and the granddaughter of Mr. and Mrs. Floyd McClellan of Patmos, Arkansas. Phil is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Joe Ray Foster and Brent is the son of Mr. and Mrs. L.H. Haltom, Jr.

Last Speech for Lodge at Peace Talks

By MICHAEL GOLDSMITH

Associated Press Writer
PARIS (AP) — U.S. Ambassador Henry Cabot Lodge, addressing the Vietnam peace talks for the last time, said today the United States will continue to participate fully in the negotiations and to seek a compromise.

Lodge announced his resignation last month after 10 months as head of the U.S. delegation. His deputy, Philip Habib, is expected to lead the delegation until President Nixon names a successor for Lodge.

"The United States government seeks an early negotiated settlement," Lodge told the North Vietnamese and Viet Cong delegates at the weekly session. "It will continue to seek it. Although I am leaving these meetings, the President's representative will continue to participate fully in them."

"We remain ready for give-and-take negotiation in any meeting place. We remain ready for compromise. When you are ready, progress can be speedy."

Lodge spoke after listening to the Viet Cong and North Vietnamese denounce the United States for the alleged mass killing of civilians at My Lai by U.S. soldiers in 1968. The Viet Cong asserted U.S. and South Vietnamese troops are continuing the mass slaughter of civilians every hour.

Deputizing 2nd grad A059 South Vietnamese delegate Pham Dang Lam said the talks were deadlocked because Hanoi and the Viet Cong maintained an "inflexible and obstinate attitude, putting forth unreasonable demands and waiting for events outside of these meetings to bring you total victory."

He accused the other side of being "intransigent and absurd" in demanding an unconditional American withdrawal. He said the Viet Cong demand for a coalition regime would mean the South Vietnamese people would "take a step backward by accepting a government not elected by the people but rather designated by your side."

Grumbling Season for Growing Group Called the New Californians

By LINDA DEUTSCH

Associated Press Writer
LOS ANGELES (AP) — This is the season of grumbling for a growing American minority group—the New Californians.

Each year they migrate, hopeful runaways from sleet and snow. Then the holidays come, and cheeriness dissolves into homesick gloom.

On palm-lined Sunset Boulevard, fronds sway over plastic Christmas trees for sale. And to immigrants from Dayton or Des Moines, white winters of Currier and Ives paintings seem a world away.

As a veteran of three California Christmases, I was prepared when the first groan came from a recently arrived friend: "It just doesn't seem like the holidays."

The blues began with Thanksgiving, he explained. The day featured 80-degree sunshine, so his mother-in-law dished up dinner on the patio. Turkey under the lemon trees and hibiscus seemed strange.

"How could I tell the kids about Pilgrims struggling through a cold winter at Plymouth Rock?" he asked.

"Well," I remarked, "why don't you tell them to remember last winter when you were shoveling snow in Wisconsin and everyone had Hong Kong flu?"

He wasn't cheered. Now another friend—here all of six months—notes fearfully that she's losing the compulsive consumer's most prized possession—her shopping mania.

"I got into department stores and I get panicky. What can I buy my mother for Christmas—

Louise Kasabian, 19, brought here from Concord, N.H.

Police say they will seek murder indictments against the three and "five others," unidentified, from the Los Angeles County grand jury. It is to convene on the killings Friday and is expected to conclude its probe Monday.

Miss Atkins pleaded innocent Tuesday to a charge of murder in the killing of a Malibu Musician, Gary Hinman, last July. Police say "Manson lived for a time with Hinman."

A codefendant, Robert K. Beausoleil, 21, described as a Manson friend, was tried previously but the jury could not agree and a new trial was ordered.

Los Angeles County Dist. Atty. Evelle J. Younger, whose office will prosecute the murder cases, expressed hope there will be no court-imposed "gag order" on information.

He said such an order in the case of Sirhan B. Sirhan, convicted earlier this year of murdering Sen. Robert F. Kennedy, prevented clarification of "absurd rumors."

The Sirhan order forbid attorneys and public officials from discussing evidence or details in the case. He said he has no indication there will be such an order.

In Independence, Manson was charged with two counts of receiving stolen property and one of operating a stolen vehicle. After the hearing, he was ordered held for arraignment Dec. 12. Bond was fixed at $25,000.

His attorney argued: "There's no evidence that Mr. Manson knew that vehicles were stolen. The simple act of driving a vehicle, even if it is stolen, is not enough. There has to be intent."

Manson is no stranger to trouble. From followers and police came sketches of a life of problems, imprisonments, mental jobs.

A Los Angeles Times account said that in his free time behind bars, Manson became interested in the occult. Officials termed his intelligence "superior."

He also took up the guitar, discovered he could sing and began writing music.

Then, on parole, he discovered the hippie-style life and a friend said "a whole new world" opened for him. He went to San Francisco's Haight-Ashbury district and acquired a following of hippie-types—most of them girls.

They left Haight-Ashbury April 12, 1968, in an old school bus, converted into living quarters for 14 young men and women—most of them women. The bus broke down near Oxnard, Calif., and one rainy afternoon, they ducked into a ranch full of old movie sets. They were still living there when the slayings occurred.

Lyndon B. Johnson graduated from Southwest Texas State College (Teachers' College) in 1930 with a B.S. degree.

volve a longer time span than the three-month periods in which the previous two pullouts were accomplished.

Such a slowdown would permit the President to announce large withdrawal figure while keeping open a choice to reduce the commitment if he decided battle developments made such a move seem unwise.

U.S. Forces in South Vietnam now number somewhat under 480,000. The latest withdrawal announcement, in September, involved 35,000 men. Their departure from South Vietnam would have brought the total troop commitment to 484,000 but that figure already has been reduced.

Then there's the shopping atmosphere. "What's the pleasure in shopping," my friend wailed "if you don't wind up with a sore throat?"

"Listen," I tell them, "in a year you'll get used to it; you'll even like it."

Meanwhile, nostalgia hangs heavy as smog.

Black Panther Shootout Kills 2 in Chicago

CHICAGO (AP) — Two persons—one identified as Fred Hampton, leader of the Black Panther party in Illinois—were killed and seven others were wounded today in a gun battle on the West Side.

The shooting erupted as police arrived at a building adjacent to the Black Panther offices and attempted to serve a warrant. Police said the warrant charged Hampton and Bobby Rush, another Illinois Panther leader, with illegal possession of firearms.

The Cook County state attorney's office identified Hampton as one of the two persons killed. The other was identified as Mark Clark, 22, of Peoria. Two policemen were among those wounded or injured, one by gunshot and the other by flying glass. Neither was hurt seriously.

Three women were among the five others treated for wounds. Hampton was with eight other persons who opened fire at members of a special prosecution unit of the state's attorney's office who forced their way through barricaded doors at the West Side address, according to Richard J. Jolovec, an assistant state's attorney.

Twelve shotguns, eight handguns and 5,000 rounds of ammunition were found scattered throughout the apartment Jolovec said.

Television and Radio

By CYNTHIA LOWRY
AP Television-Radio Writer
NEW YORK (AP) — "Jack Benny's New Look" on NBC Wednesday night consisted of Jack Benny wearing a Nehru jacket and turtleneck shirt and talking about "bread" and "being with it."

That hardly seems enough on which to hang an hour special, but there really doesn't need to be an excuse for a Benny show. To a large segment of the television audience, a Benny appearance is a visit from an old and dependable friend.

He did not let them down, and worked over the familiar ground—the tightwad jokes, the long pauses as the laugh built, the violin and then a sketch with Gregory Peck in which Jack got all the laughs. Nancy Sinatra appeared in three numbers and there was a singing group, Gary Puckett and the Union Gap.

Peck, in his initial television appearance as an entertainer, was amusing in song-and-dance routine with Benny and George Burns.

ABC, after studying the expensive wreckage of "The Survivors" has decided not to attempt any salvage operations. Instead, George Hamilton will star in a new series called "Paris 7000," playing an adventurer attached to our embassy in France and assigned "to aid Americans caught in crisis situations."

Originally, ABC planned to keep the title, change the story line and get rid of all the expensive cast members except Hamilton. The new series will start Jan. 22.

"The Survivors" is the most costly disaster of recent television seasons. It is estimated that some $8 million has gone

Drugs Appear on Display at White House

WASHINGTON (AP) — The White House was swinging with jazz and pop music. And there was a plentiful supply of drugs and the tools of the addict.

It was the windup to President Nixon's one-day governor's conference on drugs and narcotics Wednesday night.

The drugs were an educational display to show the 41 governors and their wives and children the folly of addiction.

The group clapped, stomped and sang to the music of New Orleans trumpet player Al Hirt and the pop recording group "The 5th Dimension."

Nixon told the governors "our greatest challenge is to provide some sense of idealism—some sense of challenge to our young people so they can be proud of their country."

into the making and remaking of the trouble-ridden series. Lana Turner, the show's top star, was reputedly making $25,000 a week.

The show will wind up the loose ends before it leaves. In the final episode on Jan. 12, the no-good husband of the heroine — Miss Turner — will be arrested for murder after trying to kill his wife. Tracy, the wife, and her former lover will be reunited, plan to marry and take their son away. Duncan Carlyle, her brother who is played by Hamilton, will decide to leave the family bank and make a new life somewhere—presumably Paris where he will be called Joe Shannon at the embassy.

The success story of the season is CBS' "Doris Day Show." It has gradually been gaining in popularity until, in the most recent Nielsen ratings, it has landed among the top 10 most popular programs.

Whether its increased popularity is the result of a radically revised format that took Doris out of blue jeans and put her in city clothes, its new position in the schedule after the popular "Mayberry R.F.D." or a combination of both can be debated.

ROOM LEFT IN COLLEGES, THEY SAY

Dear Helen: I would like to tell "No Room At The Inn" that a college education is available to all qualified high school graduates, if they're willing to look. True, some states have a shortage, but there are hundreds of openings in private colleges throughout the country. Many offer scholarships, work grants, and loans.

While California and eastern state colleges and universities seem filled to overflowing, many states in between will accept students for a comparatively small out-of-state tuition.

I know, I started college with $36 and ended up with eight years of higher education, six of them outside of my own state. — J.P.R.

Dear Helen: There is plenty of room for part-time study in most colleges. From part-time, it is easy for proven students to enter the junior or senior level where there is more room because of drop-outs—ONE WHO

Dear Helen: There is a computerized service for Grade C students, and "No Room" can find out about it by asking his high school counselor. We used it and out mail was flooded with information about colleges with openings. Some of these were waiting for accreditation, some were expensive, but there is room! And many of these colleges offered federal and state loans, to be paid at low interest after graduation. — C.C.

Dear Helen: I am twelve and one-half years old and in grade eight. My problem is that my old lady is a pain in the neck. I have a skimpy 75 cents a week allowance that can't even buy two packs of cigarettes.

She is always yelling and complaining and grounding me for dumb things like staying out too late, or not eating my vegetables.

Last night she caught me smoking in my room and blew her head off. I got mad and called her an old fogey and a good for nothing bum, which made her so hot she spanked me with her hairbrush. She never did that before!

I cried and screamed and today I'm playing hooky to get even. What's wrong with smoking when she does it? Is there a state law against spaking almost-teen-agers? I've got to get even with the old fogey.

Don't give me a smart alec answer. I'm not wasting six cents for a wise crack. — MARLA

Dear Marla: You just wasted six cents: Girl who calls Mother a bum, deserves the bum's brush!

(And girl who writes phony letters to columnist shouldn't be so obvious about them.) — H.

Dear Helen: I have blown pot about ten times. Some friends told me that they heard if you smoked, later in life this might affect your children. I have quit, but I'm worried. Does marijuana do something to the chromosomes like LSD? — E.R.

Dear E: No one knows yet what marijuana does (or does not do), but if you've quit after ten joints, I'm quite sure you have nothing to worry about. — H.

Hope Hopeful for Win Over DeQueen

By RALPH ROUNTON
Star Sports Writer

With 60-47 loss at Prescott Tuesday night behind them, the Hope Bobcats finish preparations today before tomorrow (Friday) night's home opener against the DeQueen Leopards.

Tonight the Hope Lady Cats travel to Arkadelphia for a 6:15 p.m. ball game against Mississippi County in the OBU Tigerette Invitational, and the Yenger Junior or Kitty Cats played Prescott there this afternoon.

DeQueen handled the Bobcats twice last year by margins of 70-50 and 65-48, and the Leopards are always tough in District 7-A. Several starters have graduated, but this year's crew is led well by guard Dickie Van Beber and forward Jackie Bell.

Although Prescott did hand Hope its first loss 60-47, Bobcat Coach John Ross was pleased with his team's effort, "especially in the third quarter when we outscored them 16-7."

John Dudley, who hit 33 points in the opening win at Nashville, got talented 6-2 Jerry Langston of Prescott as his opponent, and Bobcat Dudley won the point battle 11-9 and blocked eight shots.

Also, 6-5 senior Larry Muldrew played most of the way for Hope and came on in the second half for 12 points and ten rebounds. Ross was also pleased with junior 6-2 forward Charles Rateliff, who canned 15 points to lead the Cats and played a steady ball game.

Prescott burst into a 36-20 halftime edge with a full-court press that bothered the Bobcats' considerable. According to Ross, "our guards panicked when they couldn't find anyone open, but we settled down when they picked out the big men waiting at midcourt."

Once again Coach Ross was dissatisfied with the squad's foul shooting, 15 of 32 for 47 per cent, saying that "we'll have to do better to be a winning ball club."

As a whole, though, he was pleased once again with the effort and hustle of the Bobcat team throughout, against a Prescott ball club that ought to be mighty tough in 7-A.

Next Monday night at 7:45 p.m. Hope plays Ouachita High School in the OBU Invitational at Arkadelphia, and it should be another measure of the Bobcats' progress against a talented, quick Class A power.

Road trips also next week will take the Cats to Gurdon to meet the Go-Devils on Tuesday night, and to the den of the Foreman Alligators on Friday the 12th.

Also, an addition to the girls' schedules is a pair of games set for December 30, when the Lady Cats and Kitty Cats travel to Bradley. It will be the first meeting of the Hope and Bradley senior girls since the controversial 61-60 Lady Cat victory two years ago that ruined the long Bradley winning streak.

Defending SWC Cage Champs Open Season

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS
Defending Southwest Conference basketball champion Texas A&M opens its 1969 season tonight against Northwestern (La.) State in College Station.

Coach Shelby Metcalf says "the success of the season depends on how much we improve in December. Last year we improved quite a bit in December."

"Right now our new people don't realize what it takes to compete in the conference. They're not tough enough mentally or physically, but I think our early schedule will give them an opportunity to learn."

In another SWC game tonight, Texas, voted the most likely team to succeed the Aggies in last year as a sophomore, hit the Lubbock Avalanche-Journal 25 points.

Irish Could Be a Cage Contender

By TED MEIER
Associated Press Sports Writer

The Fighting Irish of Notre Dame loom as a strong contender for the national collegiate basketball championship this season.

They wiped out a 12-point deficit with a second half rally to pull out a 87-86 victory over Michigan Wednesday night. It was the second straight victory of Coach Johnny Dee's quintet over a Big Ten team. They beat Minnesota 84-75 Monday on the opening night of the 1970 campaign.

The Irish compiled a 20-7 record last season, but were beaten by Miami of Ohio in the first round of the NCAA championship tourney last March. The Irish vow it will be different in the new decade.

Sid Callett, hampered by an ankle injury and who was not expected to play, came off the bench in the second half and sparked the 13th-ranked Irish to their come-back triumph at South Bend.

Callett scored only six points, but he grabbed five rebounds and blocked two key shots. His work backed up the shooting of Austin Carr who tossed in 37 points for Notre Dame on 14 field goals and nine of nine free throws.

Davidson, No. 5 in the pre-season Associated Press poll rolled over Furman 109-90, North Carolina, No. 7, smashed Mercer 100-52 and Colorado, No. 10, crushed UCLA, Irvine 80-65. St. Bonaventure, No. 17 and the only other team in the AP Top Twenty to see action, also won easily. The Bonnies humbled Detroit College 106-54.

Mike Malloy threw in 21 points as Davidson won its 50th straight on its home court and successfully launched Terry Holland's coaching era. Soph Bill Chamberlain led North Carolina with 18 points while Cliff Meely paced Colorado with 27. Big Bob Lanier tallied 36 points to lead the Bonnies in their easy triumph.

Jim McMillan threw in 27 points to help Columbia come from behind and down Northwestern 83-68 in the opener of a doubleheader at Chicago. Ken Johnson's 35 points led Indiana over Chicago Loyola 100-95 in the second game.

LaSalle beat Albright 95-59 and St. Joseph's, Pa., humbled Hofstra 98-57 in a twin bill at Philadelphia.

Fordham tripped Yale 92-67, Penn State shaded Kent State 61-57 and Colgate beat Cornell for the first time in nine years 78-76.

In other games Penn beat Rutgers 80-71, Maryland walloped George Washington 92-71, Vanderbilt downed Mississippi 87-75, Navy overcame Virginia Military 71-66, Miami of Ohio edged Northern Illinois 77-74, Denver took Montana 92-58, Oklahoma City whipped Southern Methodist 99-74 and Stanford defeated San Jose 84-72.

The Longhorns whipped Mississippi 94-84 in their opener. In the only game Wednesday night involving a SWC club, Oklahoma City University thrashed Southern Methodist 99-74 in a non-league opener for the Mustangs.

Willie Watson was the big show for the winners, canning 21 points and getting 25 rebounds in another SWC game tonight, Texas, voted the most likely team to succeed the Aggies in last year as a sophomore, hit the Lubbock Avalanche-Journal 25 points.

Sidelights on Big Game Saturday

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS
President Nixon may make a few remarks to newsmen in Fort Smith Saturday morning when he arrives en route to the Arkansas-Texas game at Fayetteville.

Aides said the President would not be available to reporters once he leaves for the game.

Jimmy Karam, a Little Rock businessman, said Wednesday that evangelist Billy Graham has accepted an invitation to deliver the invocation Saturday at the game.

Karam, a friend of Graham, said he extended the invitation at the request of Arkansas Coach Frank Broyles.

Gov. Winthrop Rockefeller is due at a pep rally at 7 p.m. today at War Memorial Stadium in Little Rock as part of the "beat Texas week" he has proclaimed.

George Cole, the U of A assistant athletic director, said Wednesday that preparations for the game with Texas are proceeding as usual, except for extra security protection for President Nixon.

Some tickets had to be traded to provide seats for the presidential party of about 25, he said.

Cole said security for the President will be provided by Secret Service agents, officers of the Arkansas State Police, the Fayetteville Police Department and the Federal Bureau of Investigation.

The pregame shenanigans developing over the Arkansas-Texas battle were felt in Washington Wednesday when pickets showed up at a meeting of the House Ways and Means Committee.

The first group was composed of members of the staff of the committee chairman, Rep. Wilbur D. Mills, D-Ark. A counter demonstration came with the staff of Rep. George Bush, R-Tex.

Each side carried signs, saying "Beat Texas" or "Beat Arkansas," depending on which state was being represented at the time. Bush's office said he would fly with Nixon to the game, but added that it didn't know which team the President would support.

Mrs. Broyles Definitely Behind Frank

By DALA MCKINSEY
Associated Press Writer

FAYETTEVILLE, Ark. (AP) — Behind every great man is a woman, as the old saying goes, and Mrs. Frank Broyles is definitely behind her man and her team, the Arkansas Razorbacks, No. 2 in the land.

When Saturday's game rolls around with the No. 1 ranked Texas in Fayetteville, Mrs. Broyles will be firmly entrenched in her seat in the press box.

Like many women, Mrs. Broyles has not decided three days in advance what she will wear to the game, but says she will have "Razorback Red" somewhere.

She says five of her six children will be attending the game. Her four boys have followed in their father's example and play football in school.

Mrs. Broyles says she has no special plans for family activities prior to THE GAME, but will entertain the coaching staff and close friends in the press corps afterwards, as usual.

Mrs. Broyles said she and her husband were "very excited" when they heard President Nixon would attend the game. She said she doubted whether she would get to meet the President.

"There will probably be several in line in front of me to meet him," she said.

Being the wife of a coach is "very exciting," she says, "especially this year, when the team is doing so well."

Mrs. Broyles said that she sees her husband during football season more than the rest of the year because he is in Fayetteville. She said the remainder of the year, he is either on recruiting trips or speaking tours.

The first lady of Arkansas football said she enjoys football and always has. She met the coach when they were both in high school together in Georgia. This is their 12th season in Arkansas.

She said that when the coach comes home, he relaxes and forgets football, or at least at-

Chance of Rain for The Game

FAYETTEVILLE, Ark. (AP) — The U.S. Weather Bureau forecasts cloudy skies with a chance of rain for the national championship football game between Arkansas and Texas Saturday at Fayetteville.

A game time temperatures should be near 60 with southwest winds at eight to 15 miles an hour.

Athletics Get Alou in Baseball Trade

By DICK COUCH
Associated Press Sports Writer

MIAMI BEACH, Fla. (AP) — Felipe Alou's return to the West Coast and the New York homecoming of Joe Foy—key moves in a pair of inter-league trades at baseball's winter meetings—stepped up travel plans for Oakland's Charlie Finley and the world champion Mets.

The Athletics obtained Alou, a tempts to. She said he normally receives several calls with advice or inspiration, whatever the case may be.

At the Broyles' house everything takes a backseat until after football is over.

Mrs. Broyles laughed and said that was particularly true this year. She said she has done some Christmas shopping, but that most of it will have to wait.

As a coach's wife, Mrs. Broyles could not be counted on for tips like a jockey with his horse.

'Shootout' Tension Is Mounting

By HARRY KING
Associated Press Writer

FAYETTEVILLE, Ark. (AP) — Choose your weapons for the "big shootout."

Texas' awesome ground attack, with a dash of passing, or Arkansas' more balanced offense, only slightly less impressive.

The top-ranked Longhorns and the second-ranked Razorbacks will match 9-0 records Saturday at Fayetteville in the game of the year and perhaps the game of the century. President Nixon is making a special trip to see it.

The Southwest Conference championship, a spot in the Cotton Bowl opposite Notre Dame and a possible national championship are at stake.

The Longhorns have three of the top 10 rushers in the SWC and only against inspired Oklahoma has the first team been forced to go all the way.

Sophomore Jim Bertelsen is third in the league with 711 yards on 94 carries and fullback Steve Worster is seventh with 555 yards on 111 attempts. Ted Koy, a 212-pounder with good speed, is 10th gaining 413 yards on 71 carries. Both Bertelsen and Worster were named to the all-conference team.

Quarterback James Street has added 349 yards on 55 attempts for Texas.

"Whatever we decide to do," said Arkansas Coach Frank Broyles, "there is no answer. They've got nine backs who've averaged more than five yards a carry."

Street has thrown only 71 times, completing 34 for 575 yards. His primary receiver is Charles "Colton" Speyrer, a speedster who has caught 26 for 427 yards.

"They've got a basically sound passing attack, like any other team," said Arkansas secondary Coach Hootie Ingram. "They just haven't had to use it."

The Longhorns' average total offense of 482 yards breaks down to 376 rushing and slightly more than 100 passing.

The Razorbacks have gained 415 yards a game, 224 on the ground and 191 in the air.

Razorback tailback Bill Burnett leads the conference in rushing and scoring. He has gained 818 yards on 190 attempts and has scored 19 touchdowns. Burnett, a junior who has scored 35 touchdowns in two years, is particularly adept at the goal line, slithering through a crack in the defense or hurdling defenders.

Fullback Bruce Maxwell, a devastating blocker who leads Burnett on the pro sweeps, helps keep a defense honest. Maxwell, a 212-pound senior, ranks sixth in the conference with 559 yards on 96 attempts.

Quarterback Bill Montgomery has thrown for 1,128 yards in eight games, completing 79 of 151. Neither he nor backup quarterback John Eichler has suffered an interception in the last five games. Eichler, a senior, has completed 49 of 90 passes for an additional 574 yards.

Broyles said wide receiver Chuck Deus is the best he's ever coached. The super-quick junior has caught 33 passes for 548 yards and he is only one reception away from tying the school career record. John Rees, the other split receiver, has snagged 19 passes for 268 yards, all in the last five games. Texas also will have to worry about tight end Pat Morrison, a 220-pounder who has caught 17 passes for 227 yards.

However, despite all the impressive statistics Texas Coach Darrell Royal says he is expecting a relatively low score in the game.

gifted but aging outfielder who began his 12-year National League career in San Francisco, from the Atlanta Braves Wednesday in a straight swap for 24-year-old pitcher Jim Nash.

Moments earlier the Mets announced they had landed third baseman Foy, a native New Yorker, in a 2-for-1 deal that sent young outfielder Amos Otis, a former "untouchable," and pitching prospect Bob Johnson to the Kansas City Royals.

Kansas City also purchased five Met farmhands in a separate transaction and the Detroit Tigers swapped pitchers with Montreal, getting Jerry Robertson for Joe Sparma, as trading picked up after three uneventful days at nearby Fort Lauderdale.

The acquisition of Alou, 34, marked the first step in a three-stage trading program Finley hopes will launch the A's toward the American League West Division title in 1970.

Robertson Up a Notch in Scoring

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS

Oscar Robertson tossed in 36 points and moved into the third spot among all-time scorers in National Basketball Association Wednesday night but the Big O's heroics were in vain as the Seattle SuperSonics downed the Cincinnati Royals 118-117.

In other games Boston whipped Baltimore 113-105, San Diego bombed Chicago 146-131 and Detroit squeaked past San Francisco, 106-102.

In the American Basketball Association Kentucky beat Dallas 123-109, Indiana stopped Miami, 126-117, Washington topped Denver 99-87 and New York tripped Los Angeles 108-97.

Robertson, who has now scored 20,881 career NBA points, moved ahead of Bob Pettit, former St. Louis Hawks star on the all-time list. Pettit had 20,880 points. Wilt Chamberlain and Los Angeles teammate Elgin Baylor remain 1-2 on the list.

The Big O led a futile final period charge as the Royals gained a 112-112 tie with Robertson hitting for eight points. But a pair of free throws by Seattle's Bob Boozer gave the Sonics a 118-115 lead and a basket at the buzzer by Tom Van Arsdale was not enough.

Boston got 31 points from Larry Siegfried and 27 from John Havlicek as the Celtics opened up an 18-point lead before intermission and hung on for their victory. Gus Johnson led the Bulls with 26 points.

Don Kojis exploded for 40 points and the Rockets ran away from Chicago in the second half. Kojis hit on 17 of 19 shots from the field. Elvin Hayes added 30 more for the Rockets while Clem Haskins had 26 for the Bulls.

Howie Komives hit four foul shots in the final minutes to give the Pistons their victory at San Francisco. Komives hit two free throws with 1:11 left to put Detroit ahead 102-98 and clinched the triumph with two more with two seconds left.

Eddie Miles led the Pistons with 29 points while Jeff Mullins had 31 for the Warriors.

The Colonels Chop Down Dallas Team

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS

Indiana sat around for a couple of hours and watched helplessly as Kentucky continued its relentless pursuit . . . before the Pacers did something about returning things to the old status quo.

The Colonels chopped down Dallas 123-109 in the opener of an American Basketball Association doubleheader at Indianapolis Wednesday night.

But then, the hometown Pacers came on and turned back Miami 126-117 to maintain their two-game edge over Kentucky in the Eastern Division chase.

Washington slid past Denver 99-87 and New York defeated Los Angeles 108-97 in the night's other games.

In the National Basketball Association, Boston stopped Baltimore 113-105, Seattle nipped Cincinnati 118-117, San Diego beat Chicago 146-132 and Detroit checked San Francisco 106-102.

Darel Carrier scored 34 points to lead Kentucky, which needed a last quarter rally to pull it out.

Louis Dampier added 27 points for the Colonels and Gene Moore had 24. Manny Leaks was the high Chaparral with 24 and Cincy Powell had 23.

Indiana had to turn off a late Miami rally for its 16th victory in 19 games. The Pacers were sailing along with a 96-74 lead in the third period, when Miami got hot and cut it to 118-115.

But then Roger Brown canned a 10-foot jumper and Freddie Lewis picked up six free throws to spirit Indiana out of danger.

Mel Daniels led the Pacers with 23 points, Brown had 22 and Lewis, Bob Netolicky and Art Becker 20 each. Don Freeman scored 23 for Miami and Don Sidle added 22.

State Center on Little All America

By HERSCHEL NISSENSON
Associated Press Sports Writer

NEW YORK (AP) — Bruce Cerone, Emporia State's pass-catching wizard, hard-running halfback Paul Hatch of North Dakota State and an outstanding crop of potential pros were named today to the small college All-America team as selected by The Associated Press.

All season the professional leagues have been ogling such prospects as tight end Richard McGeorge of Elon, offensive tackles John Kohler of South Dakota and Doug Wilkerson of North Carolina Central, offensive guards Glenn Kidder of McNeese State and Joe Stephens of Jackson State, quarterback Terry Bradshaw of Louisiana Tech, defensive end Joe "Turkey" Jones of Tennessee State, defensive tackles Dave Haverdick of Morehead State and Clovis Swinney of Arkansas State, linebacker Chip Bennett of Abilene Christian and defensive backs Merl Code of North Carolina A&T, David Hadley of Alcorn A&M and Bruce Taylor of Boston University.

Rounding out the first team offense are center Dan Buckley of Arkansas State, halfback Larry Schreiber of Tennessee Tech and fullback Leon Burns of Long Beach State, the only junior among the top 22.

The rest of the defensive unit includes end Harvey Adams of Kings Point, middle guard Teddy Taylor of Eastern Kentucky and linebackers Glenn Lafleur, Southwestern Louisiana, and Calvin Lee, Willamette.

Cerone and Hatchett were the only repeaters on the first team while Kohler, Lafleur, Lee and Hadley all moved up from the second team a year ago.

Perhaps the choicest prospect is the 6-foot-3, 215-pound Bradshaw, a rifle-armed passer who threw for 2,314 yards and threatened to lure more scouts than spectators to Tech's games.

"It's conceivable that he could be No. 1," says Gil Brandt, director of player personnel for the Dallas Cowboys. "He's the best college quarterback prospect since Joe Namath."

Other scouts have described Bradshaw as "a big Sammy Baugh" and say he has the "strongest arm in the country" and is "capable of playing as a rookie pro."

Schreiber, a 200-pounder, missed Tennessee Tech's final game with an injury at a time when he needed only 82 yards to become college football's second all-time ground-gainer. He settled instead for fourth place with 4,421 yards, 1,522 of them this season on 286 carries, including a high of 255 against Northwestern Louisiana, most ever by a player from the Ohio Valley Conference.

Hatchett gained 808 yards rushing, caught 19 passes for 312 yards and scored 18 touchdowns for North Dakota State, top-ranked small college team. "He's really hard to stop," says Coach Stan Sheriff of Northern Iowa, whose team tried . . . and failed. "You must wrestle him to the ground. You can't just hit him, because he'll slide away."

Schreiber and Hatchett had to be something special to beat out second-teamers "King" Arthur

James of East Texas State and Frank Lewis of Grambling. James gained 1,334 in winning an unprecedented third consecutive Lone Star Conference rushing crown while Lewis, a wingback who runs reverses, posted the incredible figures of 782 yards in only 42 carries, caught 31 passes for 647 yards and scored 14 touchdowns.

Burns, a powerful 228-pounder, smashed virtually every rushing record at Long Beach and passed the 1,000-yard mark in his seventh game.

Cerone caught 77 passes for 1,315 yards and 13 touchdowns, just a shade off his 1968 NAIA record performance of 91 receptions for 1,479 yards. The other end, McGeorge, led Elon to the Grabbins Conference title by grabbing 56 passes for 910 yards and 13 scores. The 6-4, 233-pounder could be a first-round draft pick.

Hunger Back In Motion In Politics

By HARRY F. ROSENTHAL, Associated Press Writer

WASHINGTON (AP) — In May this year, President Nixon admitted that in 20th century America men still go hungry.

"We have long thought of America as the most bounteous of nations," the President told Congress. "That hunger and malnutrition did exist as a result of ignorance of a balanced diet or parental neglect."

CBS television produced a 60-minute documentary report entitled "Hunger in America" and the program was attacked by a number of congressmen.

Sen. Clark's subcommittee, meanwhile, continued to hold widely publicized hearings but the Johnson administration, under pressure of the Vietnam war and domestic inflation and unrest didn't want to embark on an expensive new program.

Congress also let the issue slide. A year ago, the Senate Select Committee on Nutrition and Human Needs, headed by Sen. George McGovern, D-S.D., began hearings, calling more than 200 witnesses.

Two weeks after the Nixon administration took office, McGovern urged the new secretary of agriculture, Clifford Hardin, to start emergency food aid programs in all U.S. counties which lacked them or had inadequate aid. He said there was "a national emergency."

But Sen. Allen J. Ellender, D-La., described reports of hunger in Louisiana and other southern states as gross exaggerations.

Sen. Ernest F. Hollings, on the other hand, said his home state of South Carolina "should be ashamed" of having hungry people.

Then came some action. In February the Senate voted the McGovern select committee ministering the food stamp program and that food stamps be provided free.

Orville L. Freeman as secretary of agriculture would not support the free stamps suggestion because it could lead to diversion of stamps to purposes other than food.

In August 1967, the House Agriculture Committee took issue with the board's findings, saying there is little acute hunger but malnutrition did exist as a result of ignorance of a balanced diet or parental neglect.

Sen. Clark's subcommittee, meanwhile, continued to hold widely publicized hearings but the Johnson administration, under pressure of the Vietnam war and domestic inflation and unrest didn't want to embark on an expensive new program.

Congress also let the issue slide. A year ago, the Senate Select Committee on Nutrition and Human Needs, headed by Sen. George McGovern, D-S.D., began hearings, calling more than 200 witnesses.

Two weeks after the Nixon administration took office, McGovern urged the new secretary of agriculture, Clifford Hardin, to start emergency food aid programs in all U.S. counties which lacked them or had inadequate aid. He said there was "a national emergency."

But Sen. Allen J. Ellender, D-La., described reports of hunger in Louisiana and other southern states as gross exaggerations.

Sen. Ernest F. Hollings, on the other hand, said his home state of South Carolina "should be ashamed" of having hungry people.

Then came some action. In February the Senate voted the McGovern select committee

NO MEDALS, PLEASE. Beatle John Lennon said he was returning his Order of the British Empire medal as a protest against England's support of Lagos in the Nigeria-Biafra war and the United States in Vietnam. Lennon is shown here with his wife Yoko Ono and Alexis Mardas, right, a friend.

$250,000 to continue its work after the Rules Committee had wanted to slash funds to $150,000.

When McGovern and Hollings urged Hardin to start emergency feeding programs in two South Carolina counties, Hardin agreed.

In April, when the Nixon administration revised the 1970 Johnson budget, it made no change in Johnson's request for $1.5 billion for food assistance. Hardin and HEW Secretary Robert H. Finch had proposed spending an additional $1 billion in a three-year period.

But then came Nixon's May 6 message to Congress in which the President said "the moment is at hand to put an end to hunger in America itself." He said his program would cost $2.5 billion a year.

Facts About Tax Reform Measure

WASHINGTON (AP) — Wage earners with large families and low income would be the big gainers from a Senate-adopted plan by Sen. Albert Gore, D-Tenn., to raise the personal income tax exemption from $600 to $800 in two years.

For a four-person family with $5,000 income, the new tax would be $112 in 1972 as compared with $290 under present law and $200 as proposed by the bill drafted by Senate Finance Committee.

For the same family with $10,000 income, the Gore plan would mean a $962 tax, well under the current $1,114 but slightly more than the $958 proposed by the committee bill.

For a single person with $5,000 income who now pays $671, the amendment would cut the tax bill to $538 against $524 in the committee plan.

For a single person with $10,000 income who now pays $1,742, the Gore plan would mean a $1,640 tax; the committee bill would have meant $1,468.

For a married couple without dependents and $5,000 income now paying $501, the amendment would impose a $354 tax. The committee bill provided for $375.

For the same couple with $10,000 income and a current $1,342 tax bill, the new plan would reduce the tax to $1,266.

Jury Selection Continues

BERRYVILLE, Ark. (AP) — Jury selection was to continue today in Circuit Court at Berryville in the first-degree murder trial of Billy Mayfield, 29, of Harrison.

During Wednesday's session, 10 men were selected from a panel of 37 to sit on the jury. Most of those dismissed from jury service expressed opposition to the death penalty.

No Hope for 62 Aboard French Plane

By NORMAN N. BROWN, Associated Press Writer

CARACAS (AP) — Rescuers pulled bodies, clothing and parts of an Air France airliner from the shark-infested waters of the Caribbean today, and said there was no hope that any of the 62 persons reported aboard the big jet had survived its plunge into the sea Wednesday night.

By early morning, the bodies of 11 women, and nine men had been taken from the waters off La Guaira port, seven miles north of Caracas.

The search area was in waters 100 to 150 feet deep. Divers were to go down at dawn to seek clues to the cause of the crash.

The Boeing 707 jet crashed from 33,000 feet shortly after taking off from Caracas on a flight from Santiago, Chile, to Paris. It had stopped at Lima, Peru; Guayaquil, Ecuador; Bogota, Colombia; and Caracas.

Air France said 62 persons were aboard, including 21 members of the crew and a relief crew, 19 passengers who boarded the plane at Caracas, and 22 other passengers.

Early today, the nationalities of most of the passengers had not been established, and it was not known whether any U.S. citizens were aboard.

Officials in Stockholm confirmed that two of the victims were Folke Claesson, multimillionaire Swedish businessman and founder of the annual Stockholm International fair, and his wife.

Eye witnesses said they thought there was an explosion as the plane dropped into the sea.

The new beltway around the nation's capital is a 65-mile-long high-speed highway that ties into one huge metropolitan community the 12 city and county areas around Washington.

Grammarians have a lot of fun with active and passive verbs and bridge writers enjoy discussing the relative advantages of active and passive defense.

With active defense you attack and hope that you are attacking a weak spot. With passive defense you sit back and wait for declarer to come to you.

Either line may be right but year in and year out, we side with the activists. Somehow or other the man who sits around and waits for something to happen doesn't get into much trouble but he doesn't get anywhere either.

Passive defense with today's West hand would consist of leading either a club or a trump at trick two and waiting hopefully for someone to lead to your diamonds. You would have a long and fruitless wait because by the time South got around to that suit he would have discarded all his diamonds on dummy's long clubs and your king-jack and your partner's ace would be useful for nothing but wall-paper.

Active defense would consist of a shift to the seven of diamonds at trick two. It would work beautifully. Your partner would take his ace and return the suit and instead of winding up with no diamond tricks, you would get three diamond tricks and a plus score.

The diamond lead might well have cost you a trick but it is hard to visualize it costing you an important trick.

THE DOCTOR SAYS

Some Safety Precautions Against Winter's Rigors

By WAYNE G. BRANDSTADT, M.D.

Don't become a statistic now that winter's here. Winter storms don't have to break any records to be killers, taking a toll of over 100 deaths a year in the United States. Of these, 33 are due to auto accidents, 27 to heart attacks brought on by over-exertion, 12 to exposure and the rest to such causes as home fires, carbon monoxide poisoning in stalled cars, falls on the ice, electrocution from downed power lines and collapse of buildings.

In an attempt to prevent these accidents, WEATHER Bureau stations now issue "Watch" bulletins on radio and television to alert the public that a severe storm may be approaching and "Warning" bulletins when immediate action should be taken to protect life and property. When such a bulletin is received, you should check your flashlights and battery-powered radios to make sure they are working.

Be sure you have enough fuel to last you through an emergency. You should also keep a stock of foods that require no cooking or refrigeration. During the storm or cold snap you should stay indoors unless you are in good physical condition. When you do go out remember that several layers of loose-fitting, lightweight but warm clothing will give you the best protection against the cold. Mittens, snug at the wrists, are warmer than finger gloves.

Your car should be winterized well before the season begins. If possible you should avoid traveling alone. Keep your tank filled. If a storm traps you on the road, you should avoid overexertion and exposure through attempts to push your car or shovel snow. Unless shelter is close by, you should remain in your car until help arrives. Run the heater sparingly and only with a window partly open downwind. Exercise by clapping your hands and stamping your feet. If it gets dark, turn on your dome light so that work crews can see you.

Q—What is quindline given for? What are its side effects?
A—This drug is used to control irregularities of the pulse, especially paroxysmal tachycardia or very fast heart beat. Side effects include nausea, headache, faintness and flushing of the face.

WORLD ALMANAC FACTS

Leprosy is a disease that has historically made outcasts of its victims. The World Almanac notes that leprosy is one of the least infectious of communicable diseases. Fear of leprosy was stimulated by the unpleasant mutilations viewed in poorly treated cases. As no vital organs are affected, leprosy is not usually fatal until low resistance allows another disease to interact.

Q—Which is the world's tallest breed of dog?
A—The Irish wolfhound. The record height is 39½ inches at the shoulders.
Q—Why was Calvin Coolidge required to take the presidential oath of office a second time in Washington?
A—The first oath was administered to President Coolidge by his father, a justice of the peace. The attorney general questioned the validity of the first oath, because Coolidge's father had authority to swear in only state officials of Vermont.

Thinks Thirty Could Have Been Exposed
By PAUL RECER
AP Aerospace Writer
SPACE CENTER, Houston (AP) — One of the 11 persons ordered into quarantine at the Lunar Receiving Laboratory because they may have been exposed to moon dust says 30 other persons outside of quarantine could have been equally exposed.
Russell Harmon said their exposure could have come the same way as his. Another of the officials in quarantine, Dr. Robert Brett, said the number exposed and free probably was "more like 9 or 10."
Dr. W. W. Kemmerer, a physician in charge of the quarantine, said, however, that a highly conservative approach "on the side of safety" had always been taken and "I do not believe we have compromised the quarantine."
Brett, Harmon and nine others were exposed Monday when they discovered a break in a rubber glove extending into a cabinet containing moon rocks. A health officer ordered the 11 into quarantine.
Harmon said he had no idea how long the glove had been defective, adding that the laboratory where it happened was one of the busiest places in the moon science building.
"The number could be fairly high with people wandering in and out all day," said Harmon.
Harmon said five persons used the glove Monday, but only two—he and Brett—were quarantined.
Quarantine rules call for all persons exposed to moon dust or exposed to persons who have come in contact with the material to go into isolation.
The National Aeronautics and Space Administration strictly controls the quarantine in an effort to prevent the spread of any lunar disease that might exist in the moon dust. Most scientists believe that there is no life in the lunar material.
The quarantine, said Brett, is based on "a very, very remote chance of a very, very great danger."
The Apollo 12 astronauts—Charles Conrad Jr., Richard Gordon Jr. and Alan L. Bean—talked with the Apollo 13 and Apollo 14 crews Wednesday. They were scheduled to meet with flight surgeons today for with flight surgeons today for an hour's briefing.

Postal Problem
Is in Congress
Rather Than P.O.

This week's developments in Washington confirm the average American's suspicion that our postal problem centers in the Congress rather than the Post Office Department itself.

The P.O. is regularly indicted as an antiquated outfit which is overstaffed, refuses to automate its operation, increases rates and decreases service, while managing to go in the hole about one billion dollars a year — a trifling sum to be covered by the general taxpayer.

But competent observers point out in rebuttal that the Post Office Department isn't its own boss — it is run by the Congress.

If you don't think so, consider what happened earlier this year when a bill was offered to cut the Congress loose from the Post Office Department and set up the latter as an independent government-owned corporation. The bill was promptly killed in committee.

One of the educated guesses leveled at the Congress-run Post Office system is that both the postal workers' union and the direct-by-mail customers like the existing system because, (1) it makes things easier for the union when seeking pay increases as its many members can bring political pressure against the Congress; and (2) the direct-by-mail customers like it for the same reason — it's easier to wangle special rates out of a bunch of politicians than it would be to talk to the tough management of an independent corporation.

But events this week in Washington suggest that between the postal union and the direct-by-mail customers the union is running a poor second in influence and benefits.

This week former Sen. Daniel B. Brewster, millionaire Maryland Democrat, was indicted by a federal grand on a charge of accepting $24,500 in bribes to vote favorably on certain postal rates.

The indictment was based on a long investigation which turned up the charge that Brewster accepted five payments totaling $24,500 from Spiegel, Inc., Chicago mail order house. Also indicted were the Spiegel concern and its Washington lobbyist, Cyrus T. Anderson.

Carrying the public mails is an official monopoly in our United States. Therefore it should be handled in a business-like manner just as other monopolies, such as the railroads, power and telephone services, are handled by private corporations.

The idea of turning over the postal service to a publicly-owned, non-profit corporation is sound, if for no other reason than the fact it would remove the political hand of the Congress from the red-ink P.O. cash register.

With a billion-dollar deficit on one hand and the Brewster bribery scandal on the other it may well be that Congress is about to feel the heat of the public's wrath and drop its opposition to the proposed government-owned corporation.

Woman's Body Found Nude in Her Car

MOUNTAIN HOME, Ark. — The body of Mrs. Obie Ash, 32, of Cotter was found nude under a coat in the back seat of her car Wednesday night.

Sheriff Don Cockrum said the car was parked beside a furniture store in Mountain Home. A resident of the city noticed the car and notified authorities after he heard a radio broadcast that the woman was reported missing.

The sheriff said her husband, Lonnie, had reported her missing about 7 p.m. Authorities said he told them that he last saw his wife Wednesday morning when she left to take their children to school.

Poverty Bill Causes More Friction

By JOHN BECKLER
Associated Press Writer
WASHINGTON (AP) — A bitter struggle over antipoverty legislation has widened the split between Speaker John W. McCormack and liberal House Democrats.

Over McCormack's strenuous objections, liberals Wednesday forced postponement of the controversial antipoverty bill moments before it was due to be called up.

The almost unprecedented action was designed to give backers of the bill, which would continue the present antipoverty program with only minor changes, more time to line up support.

Otherwise they feared defeat at the hands of a Republican-southern Democrat coalition backing an alternate proposal to shift major responsibility for the antipoverty effort from the federal government to the states.

McCormack, under pressure to wind up the current House session by Dec. 20, refused at first to consider demands for a delay. But he was forced to yield during a stormy meeting in his office Wednesday morning.

Rep. Carl D. Perkins, D-Ky., chairman of the Education and Labor Committee and manager of the bill, told the speaker he would not appear on the floor to call it up.

Perkins was backed by most of the committee's Democrats, who decided their position at an earlier meeting before confronting the speaker.

Members present at the hour-long meeting with McCormack described it as "a rough session" in which long-standing dissatisfaction with McCormack's leadership was aired and an open threat was made: To oppose him when he seeks re-election as speaker in 1971.

The disclosure that the antipoverty bill had been called off by hoots and jeers by the Republicans, who had hoped for a quick vote on the ultimate proposal.

The last minute delay countered a strategic move of their own in which they withheld details of their plan until Tuesday in order to minimize attacks on it.

Supporters of the committee bill hoped mayors, community leaders and others who oppose turning the antipoverty program over to the states will mount a whirlwind campaign to defeat the substitute proposal now that its contents have been made public.

They also hope President Nixon will lend a hand. He has requested passage of the two-year extension bill without crippling amendments. His antipoverty director, Donald Rumsfeld, has called the substitute proposal "disastrous."

A Professor Explodes Some Myths About Sex

By C.G. MCDANIEL
AP Science Writer
DENVER, Colo. (AP) — It is a myth that the average physician is well trained to deal with his patients' sexual problems, a Texas psychologist says.

Dr. James Leslie McCarty, Professor of Psychology at the University of Houston, spoke Wednesday about sex myths and fallacies to doctors attending the American Medical Association's clinical convention.

"It is a sad and unfortunate truth that except for adequate knowledge of reproductive processes, physicians as a group are grossly ignorant and actually rather prudish in matters of sexuality," he said.

Another fallacy, he said, is that sex desire and ability decrease markedly after age 40 to 50.

Sexual intercourse among the married elderly "occurs considerably more frequently than is commonly realized," he said.

He said a statistical study showed: "Seven out of 10 healthy married couples who are 60 years of age or older are sexually active, and the consistent clinical observation is that of both men and women, the

35-Year-Old Hippie Is Tabbed Leader of Band Accused in Slayings

By KEN HOSKINS
Associated Press Writer
INDEPENDENCE, Calif. (AP) — Charles M. Manson, accused in mountain-desert area of rustling four-wheel-drive vehicles, has emerged as a key figure in the investigation of the killings of Sharon Tate and seven others in Los Angeles.

The bushy-haired, wild-bearded little man with piercing brown eyes has been tabbed the leader of a hippie-type roving band whose members call him "God" and "Satan" — and now two attorneys say clan members killed the actress and others.

Manson, 35, who with others is accused here of running a stolen car ring from a commune near Death Valley, sat solidly Wednesday through his preliminary hearing. After witnesses said they saw him driving stolen cars, he was held for trial.

There were no charges against Manson in Los Angeles. But two attorneys there said Wednesday that a woman member of Manson's mostly female "family" told them it was some of his followers who killed Miss Tate and four others after the pregnant actress pleaded, "Let me have my baby."

The woman, Susan Denise Atkins, 21, is charged with murdering a man with whom Manson once lived. If she waives immunity to self-incrimination, a deputy district attorney says, she could become a key witness when the Los Angeles County grand jury begins a murder investigation Friday.

Shot or stabbed with Miss Tate, 26, blonde actress wife of Polish director Roman Polanski, at her $200,000 home in Bel Air last Aug. 9 were Hollywood hair stylist Jay Sebring, 35; coffee heiress Abigail Folger, 26; Polish playboy Votky Frokowsky, 37; and Steven Parent, 18, a friend of the caretaker. Stabbed fatally the next day at their Hollywood home were Leno LaBianca, 44, and his wife Rose Mary, 38, wealthy market owners.

Miss Atkins' attorneys Paul Caruso and Richard Caballero, said she was among those who dressed in black and invaded the two death homes. But they said she was under Manson's "hypnotic spell" and "had nothing to do with the murders."

Caruso said there were three women and two men. Caballero said it was four women and one man, and said Miss Atkins told him Manson "was not among them. Police say the makeup of the group was different each night."

Under arrest on murder warrants in the Tate case are Patricia Krenwinkel, 21, in Mobile, Ala.; Charles D. Watson, 24, in McKinney, Tex.; and Linda

Weyerhaeuser Paper Mill to Broken Bow

OKLAHOMA CITY — Weyerhaeuser Corporation's $100 million paper mill, the world's largest, will be built in McCurtain County, Okla., the Associated Press reported Tuesday.

Sites in Arkansas and Mississippi had been mentioned for the mill.

Oklahoma Governor Dewey Bartlett and George Weyerhaeuser, chairman of the company's Board made the announcement jointly at a banquet at Broken Bow, McCurtain County borders the Arkansas State line near DeQueen, Ark.

Bartlett's press secretary, Mike McCarville, declined to comment when asked to confirm the report.

One of the world's largest forest products companies, the firm bought 1.8 million acres of Arkansas and Oklahoma woodlands in September from Dierks Forest, Inc., of Hot Springs, Ark. The company also purchased Dierks' processing and manufacturing facilities. The price was $317 million for the Arkansas company.

The new paper mill apparently will be located on land once owned by Dierks near Broken Bow, where Weyerhaeuser now operates a window plant bought from Dierks. The Dierks Division of Weyerhaeuser employed 1,000 workers in Oklahoma and 2,000 in Arkansas at the time of purchase of Dierks.

The new plant is expected to employ about 500 persons.

Stepson Sought in Slaying

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS
CAMDEN, Ark. (AP) — A warrant was issued Wednesday for the arrest of Robert Clawson, 16, of the Louann community for the shotgun slaying Tuesday of his stepmother.

Mrs. Paul Clawson, 40, was found dead in the kitchen of her home at Louann, about 15 miles south of Camden. Coroner Jack Barger said the woman's husband reported finding the body after coming home from his job.

Barger said Mrs. Clawson apparently had been shot twice at close range.

Commander to Testify in My Lai Case

WASHINGTON (AP) — Army investigators probing a possible coverup of the alleged My Lai massacre of South Vietnamese civilians called for questioning today Capt. Ernest Medina, commander of the unit reportedly involved in the incident.

Medina was the immediate superior of 1st Lt. William L. Calley Jr., the Army patrol leader charged with premeditated murder in the deaths of at least 109 civilians at My Lai March 16, 1968.

The inquiry is an attempt to determine if a brigade-level investigation last year into reports civilians were killed unnecessarily was whitewashed. Interviewed Wednesday were five officers who were in Vietnam at the time of the incident.

A spokesman for the panel, headed by Lt. Gen. William R. Peers, said it was not satisfied with the scope and nature of the investigation by the 11th Infantry Brigade of the Army's Americal Divisional, which concluded 20 civilians had been killed in exchanges of gunfire between allied and enemy troops.

Accounts by soldiers and ex-soldiers who said they witnessed the killings have put the figure as high as 300.

Big Cut Seen in Money for Military

By JIM ADAMS
Associated Press Writer
WASHINGTON (AP) — House action is expected early next week on a $69.96 billion defense appropriations bill, slashed deeper than any military spending measure in 15 years but still containing funds for the administration's Safeguard ABM system.

The House Appropriations Committee approved the bill, after trimming it by $5.32 billion, in a flurry of congressional activity on money bills Wednesday.

Since the military spending bill is headed for a new round of efforts to cut funds for the Safeguard deployment and other weapons, prospects for Congress completing passage of it by Christmas are reported dim.

And while the appropriations Committee was acting Wednesday, one of its subcommittees reportedly put out a $1.6 billion foreign aid money bill that could lead to a Senate-House donnybrook over jets for Nationalist China.

The foreign aid bill, scheduled to clear the full House committee Monday, reportedly contains the $54.5 million for a squadron of jets for Formosa that the House authorized by surprise two weeks ago—and that was promptly knocked out by the Senate Foreign Relations Committee.

The $1.6 billion for foreign aid would be a $600 million cut from the $2.2 billion authorized by the House.

Rain Again in Weather Picture

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS
After a week's respite, rain is again in the Arkansas weather picture.

The U. S. Weather Bureau said today that light rain will likely begin in Western Arkansas early Friday spreading eastward over the state by late Friday.

This would end a seven-day dry spell, according to the Weather Bureau.

The rain is due to a low pressure system over New Mexico and Colorado pushing eastward and now bringing rain into the Texas panhandle. A high pressure area over the state should slow the rain as it approaches Western Arkansas, but only through today.

Overnight lows around the state included 28 at Harrison, Memphis and Blytheville, 29 at Jonesboro, 34 at Pine Bluff, 39 at Texarkana, 35 at El Dorado and 31 at Little Rock.

Many Expect Nixon to Delay Further Troop Withdrawals From War

By FRANK CORMIER
Associated Press Writer
WASHINGTON (AP) — President Nixon is expected to delay a decision on further U.S. troop withdrawals from South Vietnam because of a step-up in North Vietnamese infiltration and increased American casualties.

White House Press Secretary Ronald L. Ziegler had left wide open the possibility Wednesday that Nixon would disclose a third-stage troop withdrawal at his next formal news conference announced for 9 p.m. EST Monday.

Other administration sources, however, discounted the likelihood of such a cutback, pointing to the latest casualties and infiltration statistics.

Although Nixon obviously will be asked about a possible new troop pullout—to come on top of previous withdrawals totaling more than 60,000 men—sources indicated the President is more apt to say Monday he has yet to reach a decision. He may well point to factors prompting a go-slow approach.

Administration officials said recently that infiltration from the north, which had fallen notably, had increased to previous high levels. American casualties also increased in recent weeks from previous all-time lows.

Nevertheless, many believe the chief executive wants to make a commitment before the end of 1969 to bring total withdrawals to more than 100,000 men, a goal he set last summer in trying to top a recommendation by Clark M. Clifford, last secretary of defense in the Johnson administration.

There were suggestions from some officials that the third-stage withdrawal announcement, when it comes, may include a decision to pull out 10,000 more troops.

See Many Expect Haynsworth to Keep His Old Job

WASHINGTON (AP) — President Nixon announced today that Judge Clement F. Haynsworth Jr. will continue to serve as chief judge of the Fourth U.S. Circuit Court of Appeals.

With Haynsworth standing at his side, Nixon went before newsmen at the White House to describe his rejected nominee for the Supreme Court as a victim of "brutally vicious" attacks. In the face of these, the President said, the judge might well have considered stepping down from the circuit bench.

"A weak man would," said Nixon. "A fearful man would. The judge is not a weak man."

Casualties in War Now Past 300,000

By GEORGE ESPER
Associated Press Writer
SAIGON (AP) — The U.S. Command said today that 70 Americans were killed in Vietnam last week, one of the lowest weekly death tolls in the war. But the 1,049 Americans wounded pushed total U.S. battlefield casualties in the war past the 300,000 mark, to 300,829.

The 70 Americans killed was the lowest death toll in the past two months and was 46 per cent less than the previous week's 130 dead.

South Vietnamese and enemy casualty totals also were down last week, with the government reporting 373 of its soldiers killed and 953 wounded.

The allied commands said 2,177 Viet Cong and North Vietnamese were killed. The week before these death tolls were 567 government soldiers and 3,220 enemy.

Explaining the reduction in battlefield deaths, the South Vietnamese military command said enemy activity last week was at its "lowest level since the beginning of the Communist winter-spring campaign" a month ago.

Meanwhile, the U.S. Command announced that American planes attacked North Vietnamese forces in Cambodia today for the second straight day, and the south Vietnamese government said its forces joined in the attack.

A U.S. spokesman said American fighter-bombers crossed the border again to attack North Vietnamese forces firing 122mm and 82mm mortars into the Cai Cai and Hong Ngu district towns and a U.S.-South Vietnamese Special Forces camp near the border about 80 miles west of Saigon.

Field reports said two South Vietnamese were killed and one wounded by the enemy shelling. There was no immediate report of American or enemy casualties.

Twenty miles closer to Saigon along the border, South Vietnamese artillery fired into Cambodia after North Vietnamese forces on the other side renewed their attack on the border town of Tuyen Binh with a barrage of 50 to 60 rockets and mortar rounds. On Wednesday, U.S. planes bombed North Vietnamese troops in Cambodia as they fled after a combined rocket, mortar and infantry assault on Tuyen Binh.

The U.S. Command said the planes both Wednesday and today were returning "enemy-initiated fire attacks originating from within the Cambodian border territory" and were exercising their "inherent right of self defense." But according to an account on the raids Wednesday, the gamericans then were exercising the right of hot pursuit.

More than 1,000 North Vietnamese had attacked Tuyen Binh early Wednesday under cover of a barrage of nearly 300 rockets and mortar rounds fired across the border.

One North Vietnamese was captured during the attack Wednesday, and he told interrogators that his commanders planned to attack the town either by ground assault or with rocket and mortar fire for nine days in a row.

Along with the cross-border artillery exchange at Tuyen Binh today, a force of militia clashed with 100 enemy soldiers about two miles from the town, but on the South Vietnamese side of the border.

New Year's, Yule Ceasefire Announced

SAIGON (AP) — The South Vietnamese government today announced a 24-hour cease fire for Christmas and another one for New Year's.

President Nguyen Van Thieu's office said the Christmas ceasefire would begin at 6 p.m. Dec. 24 (5 a.m. EST) and end at 6 p.m. Christmas day. The announcement said the New Year ceasefire would run from 6 p.m. Dec. 31 to 6 p.m. Jan. 1.
